INFORMATION

York County School Division students are incredibly talented, which means we want to show off their artwork here in our office!

Each school year, four winners – two from the elementary level and two from the secondary level – are selected. Each winner receives a $50 prize, as well as a permanent display in the School Board Office.

ENTRY GUIDELINES

The School Board Office Art Contest is open to all YCSD students to submit class or personal artwork.

Two- and three-dimensional artwork are accepted.

Winners, their family, teachers and principal will be invited to an unveiling ceremony and award presentation at the School Board Office.

ARTWORK GUIDELINES

Submitted work must have been completed during the current school year.

The subject matter must be appropriate for display in a public building.

Winning artwork will become the property of the York County School Division.

DEADLINE

Entries and the signed release form are due to the Community & Public Relations Department by February 28, 2017.

Entries not accompanied with the signed release form cannot be considered for the contest.
