READ AND COMPLETE IDENTIFICATIONS AND PARAGRAPHS FOR CHAPTERS 1-3

American Pageant Directions

Read chapters 1-3 in the course textbook, The American Pageant. For each chapter that you read, you are to define the given terms in the provided format (see below). Then you are to respond to the provided questions in paragraph form (also see below).

ID Format: Be sure you complete each component for every term. View the terms in light of the context in which you are reading. Thus, in chapter 1 you may be able to define “capitalism” based on your modern understandings, however, you need to define and explain the significance of capitalism based on the time period being discussed in the chapter. This may be done in a chart or another organizational method so long as each component (identification and significance) is clear. All term IDs should be in complete sentences. Be concise while providing pertinent information (these are not paragraphs but may require 2-3 sentences per term). If you use a source beyond the American Pageant, you must include that source below your identification (url link is fine). PLEASE NUMBER YOUR TERMS. The term components are:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Identification</th>
<th>Significance</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Who/What/When/Where is this? When writing the ID portion of the task you are looking for cold hard facts. This tends to be straight answers from your reading. However, be sure you are not copying your textbook word for word. Read and then write your own sentences.</td>
<td>Consider the following questions when you're trying to determine significance. Your response should answer ONE of the following ideas: Why is this important in history? What impact did it have? Why do we care? When responding to the significance portion of the task you are concerned with historical interpretation. This is critical thinking; it will not (and should not) come directly from the book.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Examples for IDs:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Identification</th>
<th>Significance</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Spanish Armada—The Spanish Armada was the fleet of 130 ships the Spanish had gathered for an invasion of England in 1588. The plan was to invade England, remove Queen Elizabeth from power, and restore Catholicism.</td>
<td>The defeat of the Spanish Armada by the English represented the beginning of the end for the Spanish empire. As the Spanish power began to decline, England’s victory over the armada led to English naval dominance in the North Atlantic and a rise in nationalism at home, both of which contributed to England’s ability to colonize the New World.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Identification</th>
<th>Significance</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Rights of Englishmen—These were the rights that Englishmen enjoyed in England, which were initially extended to Englishmen living in New World colonies through the charter of the Virginia Company.</td>
<td>These rights were important because they increased the colonists’ feeling of home in the New World. They allowed Englishmen to continue following the practices of traditional English institutions despite being an ocean away, though it later led to resentment and a desire for independence when colonists felt these rights were not being respected.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Identification</th>
<th>Significance</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3. Pocahontas—Pocahontas lived in the James River area at the time of the earliest English arrivals to the region, and she was the daughter of Chief Powhatan.</td>
<td>Pocahontas played the role of an intermediary between the settlers and Native Americans, which helped to keep the peace between the two sides at a time when tensions were high. Her marriage to John Rolfe helped bring about a peace settlement to end the First Anglo-Powhatan War.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Paragraph Expectations: Paragraphs should be in complete sentences and should fully and thoughtfully answer the question. Your responses should draw on your reading of the American Pageant but should not copy its words directly. You may find that some of these paragraphs will require you to draw on information from more than just one chapter. If you choose to use an outside source, you must provide the links to your sources.
